PARCEL COMBINATION REQUEST

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY BEFORE SUBMITTING REQUEST

- By accepting this request, the Wakulla County Property Appraiser’s Office (“WCPA”) makes no representation or guarantee that the property owner is permitted to combine parcels under the terms of any mortgage, or otherwise. The property owner should check with any lenders or mortgage companies regarding whether a parcel combination is appropriate. Further, it may be advisable for the property owner(s) to apprise any lenders or mortgagors or escrow agents of the filing of this request
- For your request to be granted, the interest held by the property owner (i.e. the interest held by title) to the affected properties must be identical. For example, both properties should be held through a “fee simple” interest.
- By accepting this request, WCPA makes no representation or guarantee regarding the property owner(s)’s ability to build on or develop the property in the future. Such determinations are made by the Planning and Community Development. Further, WCPA is not responsible or liable for any loss of development rights that occur as a result of accepting this Request.
- WCPA makes no representations or guarantees regarding whether the property owner may be adversely affected by filing this request. It is recommended that the property owner seek the advice of legal counsel to determine whether adverse consequences may occur. Nothing in this form is meant to provide legal advice to the property owner(s) submitting this request.
- The property owner(s) is/are responsible for ensuring proper legal division or combination of the affected properties. WCPA undertakes no responsibility for ensuring proper legal combination of the properties or surveying the affected parcels by this request.
